When six space delegates, who have lost their worlds are pulled into an ancient Star Dragon war, they must use their extra-sensory abilities to join the fight, reverse a prophecy and return home.

- I. When SPOOBIS, a boy, loses consciousness during experiments turning his body in to a 'super', he wakes up inside a 'donut core' room with a 360° view, with a battleship's bridge, with the Motor Function Port (MFP) he needs to reactivate, just outside the donut. Spooobis discovers 1. He's trapped in a room inside his own, sleeping body 2. His "twin," BRAHM, whose favorite topic is high fashion and color, is here 3. Whomever tags the MFP first, gains full-body command yet a sudden invasion by a group of strangers, who 'hot wire' the MFP, foils the plan. The twins must work together to escape, as they compete to wake the Boy up, first.

- II. On Planet Phrygia, which is freezing over, a supernova lights the sky, ELSIA and OBIE run for their lives from a pack of wild animals, toward 'the room inside the mountain.' Their plasma-shooting lamp and KELPHUS, a Star Dragon, helps them to safety. Elsia uncovers the sleeping SPOOBIS and prepares a podship for him. Kelphus follows the pod toward a wormhole, intercepting three, fighter ships and trajecting them all toward INGLEDEENG's battleship, where all but one crash. As Ingledeeng is attacked, thunders of Star Dragons appear to reclaim the stars, stolen from their universe. Waiting in orbit, Autopilots, Glyzzy and GunnaCuke, download into Spooobis to wake him up. They "hot wire" his MFP and settle in for a long mission. Kelphus and DRIDEON (another Star Dragon) follow Spooobis to the birth of Leathos, the main planet of our saga. When Leathos breaks, Kelphus and Drideon split up to bring the pieces together and prove the existence of the Anointed One.

- III. Long ago, four STAR DRAGONS - a weapons maker, a forger, a scientist and their mastermind, NEREZZA, discover a strange poem, which gives cover to their plan to secede part of the Star Dragon planet. Nerezza's group design a frequency causing nearby stars to produce special drops of [fuel cell] glass and [a living] metal. As advanced arsenals of tools, ships and armies grow, so grows the frequency's instability. The frequency at last phases a chunk of both Petonyc and the metal/glass producing stars into a [mostly] starless quadrant, inside our universe. Many of the neighboring Star Dragon planets die. Nerezza mimics the look of the poem's writer - BRAZZ, committing crimes in his likeness. The poem spreads and grows in to a "prophecy," as a war begins to divide their tribes. As Brazz goes underground, the remaining Star Dragons divide into 1. Those who join Nerezza 2. Those who resist them and 3. Those caught in the crosshairs, yet remain undecided.

THEMES: Things are often not as they seem. Sometimes bad things happen to good people. Never underestimate the power of small groups. Too much technology is dangerous. Not enough technology is dangerous. Home is usually where you left [it].
